LABOR.

GOMPERS HAS FAITH IN SELF.

Denies Charges Made by the Manufacturers.

Labor Leader Delivers Forty Pages of Defense.

"I Defy Our Enemies to Do Their Worst," He Says.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.

NORFOLK (Va.), Nov. 20.—The American Federation of Labor has rejected a resolution in favor of the organization of "employers' associations" and "citizens' alliances," and that no employers of labor be admitted to membership.

President Gompers this afternoon delivered his expected speech replying to the charges brought against him by the Employers' Association. It covered forty pages of typewritten copy, and was an "exposé" from the viewpoint of President Gompers of the National Association of Manufacturers and its ramifications.

President Gompers answered in detail the charges and closed an impasse reached with these words:

"There is not a grain of truth in anything published or written by the manufacturers in the country, as published by the National Association of Manufacturers or their henchmen which in any way can reflect on the integrity, the morality or the honesty of myself, and I have the abiding faith that the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. I defy our enemies to do their worst."

A great association was created in the American Federation of Labor this afternoon by President Gompers in his speech replying to the attacks made upon him and other officers of the federation by the Employers' Association, when he told of an alleged attempt to bribe him at the Victoria Hotel, New York, in October, by a group of manufacturers under the name as Charles Brandenburg, the latter, President Gompers said, having declared that he represented the National Association of Manufacturers. And Gompers was prepared to offer him immunity from all exposures and make him financially secure for the remainder of his life if he would not call him a "bribe" and other aid in the "exposure of the other leaders in the American Federation of Labor with the view to virtually destroying the influence of organized labor."

The paper, President Gompers said, was to purport to have been signed when he (Gompers) was ill in 1895. The paper, Mr. Gompers said, he had preserved, and while death-like stillness prevailed in the convention President Gompers drew from Mr. Gompers during his recital of the alleged attempt at bribery, called upon different delegates present who were with him at the time to swear to him that Brandenburg to verify his statements. The delegates, rising in their seats,

MAKING READY FOR BIG CRUISE.

ARMY OF MEN WORK ON BATTLESHIP FLEET.

Activity at Brooklyn Navy Yard Is Greatest Ever Known and Hundreds of Sailors and Civilians Are Engaged in Making Repairs Above and Below Decks.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Working night and day to prepare the Atlantic fleet for its approaching cruise to the Pacific, the activity at the navy yard in Brooklyn is officially stated to be greater than is known there before.

The scope of the work on the ships could hardly be more elaborate. The work of preparation has been extended into every department of the yard, and, aside from the coaling of the ships, hundreds of sailors and also civilians are engaged in making countless repairs below and above decks. Scores of extra hands are sorting out lighters, clamps for the use of the great trucks and floating barges, are delivering thousands of packages for ship's supplies and the big battleships are being put into the most efficient possible condition. Millions of pounds of provisions are being put aboard the ships.

Yesterday the starboard side of the battleship "South Dakota" was loaded down with boxes of turnips, vegetables which the bluejackets were encouraged in getting below hatches. The battleship, in the dock opposite to the "Lorraine," is over 1000' long.

The battleship "South Dakota" is to serve as a floating machine shop for the fleet and is being fitted up with foundries, lathes, foundry engines, punched hammers and other machinery. She will carry thousands of high-class tools.

The hydrographic bureau has an extensive outfit of scientific and navigational charts for the ships. When it is considered that each vessel will have to be supplied with 700 charts, the magnitude of that task may be appreciated.

WHITE HOUSE WARNING.

PRESIDENT TO CALL A HALT.

WILL PUNISH TOO-ZEALOUS FRIENDS IN SOUTH.

Warns Federal Office-holders That They Must not Work for Third Term in State Conventions or Go to National Meeting as Delegates Instructed for Him.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) President Roosevelt's next association with the Federal office-holders in Alabama, Tennessee and elsewhere are preparing to control their State conventions and send third-term delegations to the Republican National Convention. Through the press he has informed, it is understood, that he is to pass at once to the office-holders that examples will be made of them if they attempt anything of this kind. He is to tell them that he is not on good authority that there is no objection to office-holders taking part in State conventions and being sent to the national convention as delegates; but if they are so elected, they must not permit themselves to be instructed for him for another term.

Briggs put, the President does not propose to nominate for another term by Federal office-holders, and he will not some of them from their jobs if they attempt anything of this kind. He is to tell them that he is not on good authority that there is no objection to office-holders taking part in State conventions and being sent to the national convention as delegates; but if they are so elected, they must not permit themselves to be instructed for him for another term.

TOO CONSTRUCTIONS.

There is absolutely no clearing up of exactly what the order of the President's nomination is, and it is the effect of putting the President before the country as against being nominated again, if such should be the case, by the employees of the government, the public and the people.

His nomination must come from the people, and not the office-holders. The fact that there is no inhibition against office-holders taking part in State conventions and privately pulling the wires to suit themselves is regarded as of immense significance. All that is required is that they must not be instructed for him for another term.

MRS. BRADLEY'S LETTER.

The only other letters read during the day were three from Mrs. Bradley Brown, which were introduced by Mr. Reid, the president of the organization. The first of these was written to me to hint that he plainly intends that he is not to be worked for or voted for, and that, so far as office-holders are concerned, he can and will punish them.

REITERATION?

One interpretation is that the President now reiterates, in a roundabout way, his famous declaration of ejective privilege, and will not be a candidate, and will not answer another term. For reasons of his own, the argument is made, he does not want to be seen now in a declaration, but that the sign will be sufficient.

Still another interpretation is that the President, realizing that he has been, and will be, a candidate,

and will not answer another term, is making his position clear.

The newspapers are in this position, and the public is notified of his position.

He is to be a candidate, and will be a term.

MANIA FORMED. A leader of young Scardina men, by a supposed Black Hand, in his father's saloon, was followed by the announcement of an organization formed to expose the Black Hand. The Black and that it had received pledges

Baltimore for New York on account of a secret society there,
met with the Black Hand that unless they paid him twenty-four hours shots in the mouth, but remained a revolver within any members of the Mania.

UP-HILL RACE.
BOX SPRINGS
GRADE CLIMB.Prizes Are the Handsomest Ever Offered There.Committee Names Officials to Handle Events.Large List of Entries and Fast Time Promised.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TIMES) RIVERSIDE, Nov. 20.—Cups to be awarded in the automobile hill climbing race up the Box Springs grade Thanksgiving Day are the handsomest that have yet been offered in any of the annual meets on this course. They are on exhibition here and attract much attention.

The committee in charge of the climb has elected as judges and timers: E. H. Verrill, A. J. Stalder, G. C. Schley, Julius Head, H. W. Hammon, C. G. Roush, and C. Smith. Robert Lee Bettner, W. E. Neibert and Harry Beatz.

George F. Harsh and C. A. Dundas will act as official starters, and three local dealers will be selected to act as observers of the cars, to see that they conform to the rules of the contest. F. C. Russell will be the official clerk at the judge's stand.

A private telephone line has been installed this year to avoid all possibility of error or delay. The course will be guarded by a squad of uniformed men of Company M, whose duty it will be to keep spectators from encroaching on the roadway, and every precaution will be taken to eliminate all chance of accident. The road has been rolled repeatedly and smoothed and is as level as a road. Much work has been done on it since the year, making its condition excellent for speedy running. The curves have been cut down, blind turns have been eliminated, and a good driver can steer nearly a straightaway.

TO REDUCE RECORDS.

Owing to the improvement in the course it is predicted that last year's record in the formal contests will be reduced considerably. The best time last Thanksgiving Day was 5:414. It is believed that this year a five-minute record will be established.

The contest is to be a test of stock cars, not specially built and equipped racers, and for such a contest the Box Springs grade presents the best and the practical tests it would meet in ordinary use. Entries are coming in rapidly and a successful meet is looked forward to.

At 2 o'clock Thursday morning the first event will be started. Autos taking part are to be on the starting line promptly, and the management promises to run the races off as rapidly as possible. It is intended to finish them by noon.

Up to midnight yesterday the entry list showed eleven more names than for last year. About half the Belmont squad in December. Manager Howard received word that Coach Reed of the Belmont team thought it almost impossible for the team to play the L. A. eleven this year.

After the good, showing they made against the Harvard eleven, the local team, which was to play Belmont, would play Belmont, as the manager implied that they would play them if they were successful with the Harvard team. Although Coach Reed has not given a definite statement, it is almost certain that the two teams will not clash.

HIGGINS AN ALL-STAR.

Northern Experts Select Him as Five-eights in American Rugby

Fifteen. STANFORD UNIVERSITY. Nov. 18.—Stanford has five men on the All-Star Rugby fifteen recently chosen by experts in San Francisco. The selection of Higgins of Los Angeles as one of the first reserves, and of others, came as a surprise among northern players, but reports of his work seem to justify the choice. The members of the Cardinals have been named for the All-Star aggregate, and Miller and Crawford in the scrum, Fenton in half, Ganong at five and Underwood at center. Among the reserves, Higgins, Caudle and, at full, Higgins, King, Wing and Koerner among the forwards.

The other members of the fifteen are: (Northern) Badenoch, (California) Barnicot, (California) Rines (Barbarian), Spence (Barbarian), forwards: Tuller (California), wing forward: Higgins (Los Angeles), five-eights: Higgins (California), (Barbarian), wings: Butler (California), Stow (California) and Brown (Barbarian).

When a car is to be taken the right hand side of the grade, and a car overtaking another shall pass on the left side.

The top of the hill climb will be 256 feet east of Glendale, and the finish 500 feet west of the Santa Fe tracks at the summit of the Box Springs grade. No entries will be received after November 25 at midnight.

Following is the complete list of events:

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch] That Los Angeles High School had challenged Berkeley High School to a game was unknown here, but, if such a challenge is received, it is considered probable that it will not be accepted, for the reason that Berkeley has already a schedule to play with other teams, which will take all of their time.

Lock or Woodland is to play Berkeley, and Berkeley will have to go to Seattle for a game with Seattle High. It is not probable that time will be found to play Los Angeles before the close of the season.

Treasurer's Conduction of Office and Proposes to Oust Him from His Position—Goodman and Newton
Talked of as Successor.Directors of the California Winter
League are dissatisfied with the methods employed in the conduction by Oscar Chavez of the office of treasurer of the organization, and a secret meeting is scheduled to be held this weekend for the purpose of ousting him from his position.

There has been no sentiment against having Chavez continue as manager of the Santa Barbara team, and unless other complications arise he will continue to direct the affairs of that club.

"Bill" Goodman, of the Bulldogs, and W. A. Newton, of the San Pedro team, are mentioned as candidates for the place to be made vacant if Chavez is asked to resign.

No specific charges are made against Chavez, but other officers say they prefer to have some other man in the position.

CHALLENGE Fleet Swimmers.

If there are any crack swimmers among the jack tars of Rear-Admiral Dayton's squadron, soon to be anchored off shore at Venice, they are to be given the opportunity to do their best, their present captain, George Freeth, first Lieutenant of the Venice Life Saving Corps, has issued a challenge to any man in the fleet to a fifty-yard dash. The swimmer will be allowed to take all the time he wants to be given for a try to be contested for Monday in the late at Venice. Freeth also challenges any member of the squadron for a dash under water, distance and length of time to be mutually agreed upon.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Mayor Harper is considering a message to the Council asking that present attempts at charter revision be abandoned, and that a new start be made with proportionate representation on the revision committee.

Auditor Musher's plan for a new system of municipal accounting is meeting strong opposition at the City Hall; the politicians find that it would reduce materially the number of city employees.

Oscar Chaves, charged with subornation of perjury in connection with the Aransas oil case, was arraigned yesterday in Justice Pierce's court, and the date for examination set. The prisoner was released on bail.

The long-continued examination of John Tway and Mrs. Catherine Tway, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, ended yesterday in the discharge of the defendants. Deputy District Attorney North roundly scoring all parties to the deal.

AT THE CITY HALL.

COUNCIL MAY TRY NEW TACK.

MAKES NO HEADWAY AT CHARTER REVISION.

Proposed Reforms Only Please City at Mercy of Professional Politicians. Mayor May Advocates Peace Conference—Habitual Agitators Asked to Take Back Seats.

Charter revision has become an issue between contending factions at the City Hall. The underground warfare is waging about the selection of the fifteen men who shall serve on the Advisory Committee. Mayor Harper's advisers are urging him to send a message to the Council Monday requesting the legislators to cancel all that has been done to date, and to meet him in executive conference to arrange plans for a fresh start.

Another reason the charter is a game for expert politicians. The charter itself is to municipal politics what the Marquis of Queensberry rules are to the pugil ring. "Phony" reformers hang about the City Hall, a chamber of commerce, a municipal ducat, as bottle holders, and the time-explosives hang about the training quarters of the successful pugilist.

The real force behind the proposed amendment is the desire to change the surface; generally the cloven hoof does not appear until the amendment has been in use for two or three years.

Four years ago amendments were proposed placing the initiative and the referendum in the initiative and the referendum in the initiative and the referendum in the initiative. For a time many asked why the political forces, the powers that furnish the molds in which charters are cast, should have permitted these measures to be submitted to a vote of the people.

The solution to this question is found in the professional canvassers who are ready to supply names to any old petition if the opposition will pay 20 cents for each name more necessary. Call a special election to contest the seat of any elected official, or to force on the Council an ordinance which a majority of the Councilmen regard as vicious legislation. It is now a question of finances only. The professional canvassers estimate that $300 will buy a recall petition in which but one ward is interested, and that $500 will secure an initiative election.

An initiative election costs the city $10,000; the initiative amendment to the charter compels the Council to call such an election at once if 15 per cent of the voters at the last election sign any petition. The ordinance proposed would be clearly invalid; but neither the City Attorney nor the Council may question it. The expense of the election must be borne and the ordinance declared invalid.

When an attempt was made two months ago to consider charter revision, the committee selected round the work not at all to their liking. The committee adjourned sine die without recommending a single amendment to the charter.

Three weeks ago the Council agreed on a schedule from which a new Advisory Committee shall be selected. This was to be composed of men from the Chamber of Commerce, three from the Municipal League, three from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, two from the Voters' League, two from the Urban Labor Council, one from the bar association, and one from the Clearinghouse Association.

Mayor Harper and his Democratic supporters opposed this plan for representation, they said, that it isn't democratic. The Mayor was asked the extent of condemning it as a scheme of the Non-Partisans to play politics.

The associations named have shown a tendency to select men for the places on the committee, and have chosen less than one-third of the committee than has been named. In the meantime the fight has been carried to the Council and there will be opposition to confirming the appointments.

PLACES IN DOUBT.

MERIT VS. PATRONAGE.

Strong opposition is developed at the City Hall to Auditor Musher's new system of municipal accounting; the objections are urged by the friends of a number of license collectors in the Tax Collector's office, who will lose their places if the new idea of license inspection and collection is adopted.

Musher proposes that the people shall be compelled to go to the City Hall and pay their licenses, just as they pay their taxes. He wants the police to collect the money and proposes to place under the Police Commission a supervisor of licenses.

This plan would meet instant favor, not so much for the fact that it would abolish the present system of license collection.

The District Court of Appeals has reversed the judgment of the lower court in the case of Mrs. Irene Loring, who was sentenced to serve a term in San Quentin, upon evidence tending to show he had violated his parole. Loring was convicted of robbery and was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Smith for two years. In August, 1900, he was arrested and taken before the court, charged with some new crime. The court then ordered his commitment to State prison. The ground of the appeal was that the evidence of the violation of his parole was improperly admitted.

We trust that artists will not make the mistake of picturing the next New Year as the usual boy cupid. It will be a girl, next year being a leap year.

The Mobile idea of supporting the public schools with the revenues derived from saloons lasted a good deal longer than it ever had any right to last.

From this distance it seems to us that a brewery in Alabama could now purchase for about what old bricks would bring under the hammer.

A peculiar thing about the leading actresses of the day is that they usually have their pictures taken with their dogs instead of with their husbands.

Judging from the manner in which she is reaching out for the new government certificates and Panama bonds, St. Louis is a good deal of a money center herself.

What a bar the friends in the old home back East must think the man is who writes from Los Angeles to say that there is a circus here every day at this time of the year.

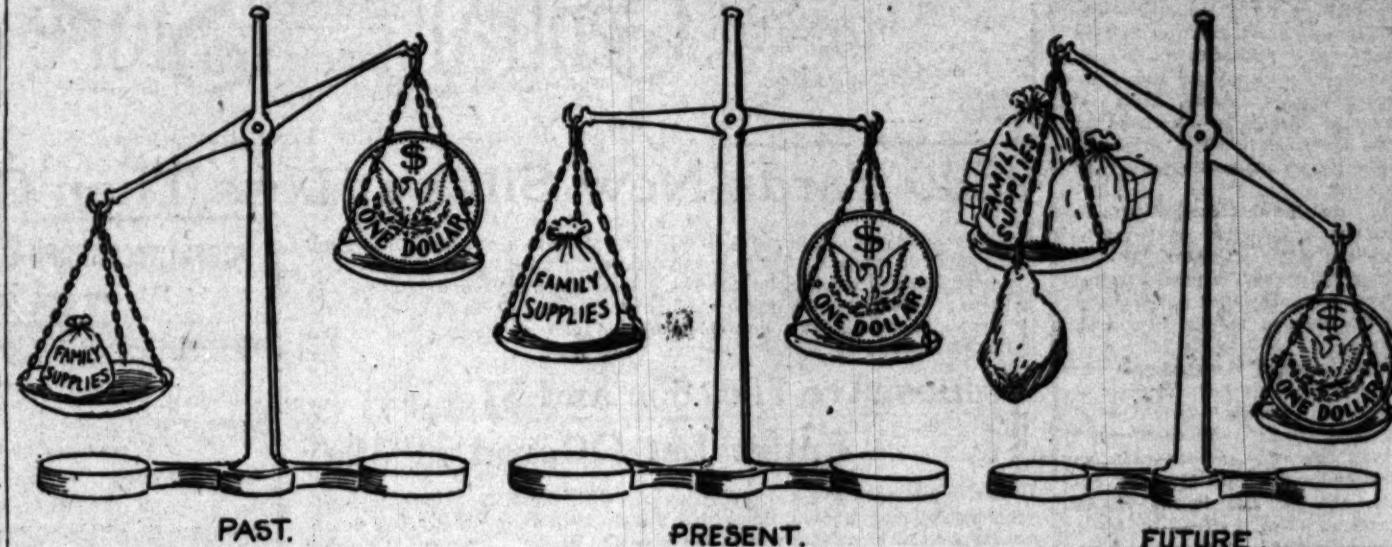

A number of Methodist ministers have paid an editor's fine. There is nothing like little kindly incidents of the character to draw the press and the public into closer and more friendly relations.

Another way to dishearten the thieves and vagrants is for the residents of the city to carry no money about with them or to have none in the house. The robbers won't remain here if it doesn't pay them.

If you hear a burglar in the house you are advised to wait to see what he is about. While she was the gentleman engaged in conversation you can slip out of a back window and across the neighbors.

We are glad to be able to state that the Oregon woman who became the accessory of her paramour in the murder of her husband, who then betrayed her paramour to the police and afterward tried to effect his release by influencing him of the intentions of the officers, by no means a typical woman in any sense of the word.

UPS AND DOWNS.

PAST.

PRESENT.

FUTURE.

with a sparse population things go in the older States. The total wealth taken from the ground there last year was worth nearly $7,000,000.

At Thermal, in the sinks of the Colorado "Desert," a country where only a few years ago there was no population, sixty-five farmers received about $50,000 for melon and onion crops this year.

The crops and mineral production of San Bernardino county were sold last year for over $18,000,000.

Sugar-beet growers in Ventura county near Oxnard get this month over $1,000,000 for their beets. Bean growers in the same county will get $2,500,000 for Lima beans. These two crops distribute $3,500,000 among no very large number of farmers.

If we embrace in the review the whole of Southern California, citrus fruits last season brought a gross sum of $34,000,000 and the coming season these crops are expected to bring $40,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Taking in all the southern part of the State again, the oil product has grown in twelve years from a value of $1,045,000 to about $38,000,000 this year.

What can bankrupt a nation with resources like these? And we have left out dozens of sources of great wealth.

Los Angeles city, as to her business prosperity, rests on broad foundations, broader and more solid than perhaps any other in the country. The building trades during this year account for the distribution of about $15,000,000. This activity has been temporarily checked, and November building may not cost above $500,000. The bill for new homes and places of business cannot be held down so low a figure. We shall be disappointed if 1902 does not show an expenditure of $12,000,000 for new buildings.

The new street-making will put into circulation $1,500,000 in Los Angeles.

The manufacturing establishments of Los Angeles will turn out products worth $50,000,000.

Some 50,000 tourists will come here next year. They will spend from $50 to $25,000 each. The total sum will be millions.

How is it possible that business should stop in such a city?

Money? Oh, the money is all in the great railroad systems of the country and will be set to work next year as it was made to work all year. Money will not lie idle. We are not an aggregation of idiots.

The people of the United States have dug up $1,025,388,100 since January 1, 1907, to finance industrial and railroad enterprises. Railroads get nearly $700,000,000 of it. Mr. Hill says the need of railroad expansion is as great as ever. The money is all here. The railroads and others paid out all they got for wages and material. For the production of this material the mills expended nearly all they got, too. The mines paid their share in wages. Thus the toilers got all this money week by week and spent it for living expenses. The now are rolling mills, car shops and locomotive works to remain closed?

On Puget Sound there are piles of wheat enough on the wharves to load a fleet of ships, and English millers waiting across seas to get it. The farmers of the State of Washington will soon receive nearly $1,000,000 for this grain. The conditions are similar in Portland, and Oregon farmers will draw as large sums from London and Liverpool as those in Washington.

The locomotives which belong here in Los Angeles have all been drawn off north to haul out the immense crops harvested in the San Joaquin Valley and now seeking active markets at high prices.

With all this wealth of the farms, how well, and with so active a demand, how can a money stringency last?

The total value of all the crops of the whole country is set down at $7,000,000,000, the largest figure ever set on the crops of one season. Can hard times distress a land so rich?

The nearer home we come, the greater these riches, population considered. The Times has noted piecemeal the value of Southern California products. Mass them and see what it shows.

A farmer on the rich lands around Fullerton received $165 an acre, for sweet potatoes, from a fifteen-acre patch, $2,675 all told.

The little Cajon Valley in San Diego county produced sixty carloads of raisins, which sold for $120,000.

Not far off from there, over the mountains, lies Perris Valley, a section where plain farming is the main occupation. The grain and hay crops in that part of one county are worth $1,000,000.

The citrus fruit crops of San Diego county last year were worth $1,060,670. This is in area a large county, able to cross unless something were bought for her that she could use to wash the dishes with, or to mop up, to sweep and dust with around the house. But don't listen to her. Let's see! How would a bunch of tickets for the theater do, while everybody agreed to mind the house for a lot of nights and to take the drag away from her and lift the burden from her shoulders? Maybe mother wouldn't enjoy that, eh? Think it over.

As far as the younger members of the family are concerned, it is perhaps unnecessary to make any suggestions. It seems that young people, in these days, get pretty much everything they want, not only at Christmas, but right along. The ones to think about are the old folks who are no longer to be overlooked and forgotten, or remembered only in a purifying way from a sense of duty at the last minute. And they are the ones who ought to be thought of first of all. Suppose everybody tries to make this the happiest Christmas that ever was for the old folks!

WHEN THE FLEET COMES ROUND THE HORN.

away, on the breast of the heaving brine.

In the teeth of the lashing gale.

On by the one, the ships of the line.

From the far, white shores will sail,

South they'll sail with the gray gull's call.

Through the night and many a morn,

To the sunlit seas that wait them all,

When the fleet comes round the Horn.

Never was fleet like this that dared

On the ocean's tides of tang.

Since the prow's the lost Ulysses fares.

To the isles where the sirens sang:

Never as this went Norseman keeled

From the ice-swept seas to war,

Nor Spain, when her fierce armadas had sailed.

In the fires of Trafalgar.

South with the gray gull's call they'll go.

The steady ships of the line,

Sail after sail in the noon-day glow,

And under the stars that shine,

They will sail away with the winds slate.

And buffet the tides to scorn.

Till the welcome breaks from the Golden Gate,

When the fleet comes round the Horn.

One by one to the seas they'll sail,

As the bo'uns pipes all hands,

While the sailors crowd to the swinging rail.

And the admiral o'er them stands,

From the guns on shore to the waves slate.

Shout the deep farewells to rung,

To fighting Bob and his dauntless crew,

And the flag above them flung.

And they will pass on the starlit deep,

When the day's last gleam has fled.

When the fleet comes round the Horn.

JOHN S. MCROARTY.

DAYS WHEN THEY WROTE ON BRICKS.

By Fred C. Kelly.

Bricks are now largely supplanted by paper as a writing material. If a man wants to try to build the paper business with bricks now, he would lose money. When anybody wants to lay in a supply of office stationery, he doesn't go and dicker with the proprietor of a brick yard, because he knows that if he did, he would be whisked off to the foolish works like every week or two.

But if, one day, he wants to write letters like that every week or two, he can't afford to pay the price of paper. When John Paul Jones salutes the host, "That keeps the faith with him," that is where Mobile is.

Mobile will succeed unless the States rights people will allow the old universal solvent principle to have free course and become municipal rights.

Here is where Mobile will find her a misleading misnomer. She is as fixedly immobile in her geographical and territorial relations with the State as the pole star in the heavens. There is no way for any part of a State to secede from the rest of the commonwealth without the consent of the majority of the people of the State, followed by an act of Congress. Municipal secession from a State is as contrary to the fundamental principles of the government today as was State secession from the Union fifty years ago. The State in its several communities, geographical and territorial, is as immobile as the sun in the sky.

Mobile is as immobile as the sun in the sky. The pennants shall dip to every ghost. On the water hushed and dim, While John Paul Jones salutes the host.

When the fleet comes round the Horn.

RELIGIOUS.
GOOD ALL THE WAY THROUGH.
High Standard for Sunday-school Teachers.

State Convention to Finish Its Work Today.

Benefit Lecture This Evening by Dr. Burdette.

The person who might go seeking entertainment at the Southern California Sunday-school convention, now in session at the First Congregational Church, might go away disappointed. To the worker seeking to know how better to do his work, it is a feast of good things. The large auditorium was completely filled, which is an unusual thing at Sunday-school conventions.

President Porterfield, who was a delegate to the international convention in Rome, declared yesterday that for practical suggestions, interesting illustration, and real enjoyment, that great convention "could not hold a candle to the Southern California convention."

Marked interest was shown in the six department conferences held during the forenoon, and all were largely attended. They were held in as many different rooms of the church building.

Rev. E. W. Thornton, who says Sunday-school teachers must keep in touch with the times.

The teacher-training conference was under the leadership of F. D. Motta, among the speakers being Rev. H. A. Miller and E. L. Zahm. The latter is state supervisor of the department. Mrs. N. F. W. Pond of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of Riverside, told of successful classes. C. D. Meigs told them how to push country work.

The organized Bible class conference was led by D. L. Durand, talk being made by E. E. Ford, C. B. Galloway, Leonard Morris and Hugh Cork.

The other six conferences were together under the leadership of W. L. Malone, Hugh Cork, C. D. Meigs, and George W. Gooch, secretary of the Los Angeles county association.

The elementary conference was under the leadership of Miss Memé Brockway, who conducted a model junior session. Mrs. S. J. Chapman led the devotions and Mrs. E. C. Kenyon, led a conservation service at the close. Mrs. C. A. Miller, wife of Mrs. Lillian Allard, delivered brief addresses on elementary topics.

The temperance conference was led by Mrs. Stella B. Irvine. State superintendent and her assistants were ably assisted by the leaders. O. T. Nichols, superintendent of the Los Angeles county, spoke on "Progress."

The conference of the home department was in the hands of Mrs. H. S. Allard, State superintendent. One programme was Rev. George E. Foster, Dr. C. A. Young, Mrs. A. Embree, Rev. B. C. Cory, Mrs. W. C. Newell and Mrs. L. J. Miller.

At the close of the conference all the delegates came together in the main auditorium and listened to a splendid practical address by Rev. T. C. Horton, upon the topic: "The Home, Our Own Peple and the Church."

SETS HIGH STANDARD.

Rev. E. W. Thornton of Long Beach, appeared as substitute speaker on the subject of "The Teacher's Office," and he won applause for the able manner in which he "delivered the goods."

He is an eloquent and forcible speaker, and holds the closest attention of an audience.

The modern teacher in the Sunday-school must be interpreted, he said: "Observe the teacher, will take care. You cannot teach intelligently unless you appreciate the age in which you live; you must be a student of the times, of the environment in which you live. Do not try to do this. A practical illustration will make no illustration, and you'll simply make a mess of it."

"Our homes are being sacrificed to a spirit of competition, that is, the desire to look upon home as a place to which they can go at night when they are tired out. You can't talk to them of the old-fashioned home-life around the fireplace, for they never have seen it. They have never seen these fine sentiments learned at the fireside, where mother was queen, were the sweetest things in life, but you can't talk to the young folks about them now, for they never have seen them."

"You must be an interpreter of the spirit of the pupil. The time has come when the Sunday-school teacher must know at least the simplest principles of pedagogy; you must know how to teach, how to interest, how to inspire, how to tell. It is an important thing to know the scripture but it is not enough; a boy at 10 or 12 years depends on no one—he has to be shown."

"In these recent years we have grown intellectually much faster than we have spiritually, and that is the cause of a lack of uniform belief in answer to prayer. Something simply has to be done to counteract the spirit of irreligion that is rapidly growing up."

SELLING BONDS.

In order to keep up the pace set by General Secretary Gibson for the State work, handsome lithographed bonds were offered for sale by C. D. Meigs, who was put on the platform to make them go. The bonds are for $12 each, payable within one year, and when the twelve coupons are clipped off, the sum is sent to the State, as a deposit for the whole amount. A good number were sold, and a considerable sum guaranteed for the year's work.

Mr. Meigs told many good anecdotes

THE very interesting news of the engagement of Miss Amelita Abbott, the bride of Clark Miller, nephew of J. Although the romance dates back to the school days of the young people, no one ever guessed the secret. The announcement was made yesterday.

ARE "KICKERS."

COUNTY DIVISIONISTS SNEER AT THE OPPOSITION.

Candidate Converse and Four Others of Glendora Laugh at Claim That Western Boundary Lines Are Obscured and Tell Why They Think Plan Ought to Win.

FIVE CITIZENS of Glendora, supporters of the plan to form a new county of Pomona, have presented a communication to The Times, in which they assert, among other things, that the opposition to the movement is mainly from non-residents of the proposed new county. These Glendora "pros" are: W. C. Converse, who is candidate for District Attorney on the Pomona county ticket; Postmaster J. H. Wammack; C. C. Warren, rancher, and C. A. Weaver and W. L. Case, real estate dealers.

"Of course," these gentlemen say, referring to the opposition, "the men have some business or financial interests outside the lines, or they could not afford to subsidize the outside papers in their interests."

"The talk about concealing or confusing the western boundary line raises the suspicion that Rip had just awakened from a twenty-year sleep, and the remnants of the organization, gathering up handfuls of dust to throw in the pursuer's eyes."

It is argued by the Glendora quires that the boundary line between Los Angeles and Orange counties, and between San Bernardino and Riverside counties is much more ragged and uncertain than that proposed western boundary of the proposed new county; in fact, they say, there is scarcely a county in the State whose lines are as straight as those of the new county.

Talk about petty office seekers is rubbish, they say, stating that 75 per cent of the citizens of Glendora, as well as Converse, are in earnest.

Converse is 90 per cent of San Dimas and about 70 per cent of the San Bernardino portion are in favor of a new county.

Any one or two men may be separated from their property by the proposed county line, it is admitted, but that is declared to be a mere circumstance, which occurs in the case of many other land.

In this connection, the "pros" call attention to the fact that the Los Angeles Courthouse is inadequate to the needs of the county, and that many officials and services outside of a large yearly rental. Bonds for another million or more will be needed to relieve the situation, it is pointed out, and the advocates of a new county say that county division affords the best remedy.

Candidate Converse and his Glendora associates say they are actuated by the desire to have their home city move to a consolidated city government.

"When that consolidation is accomplished, we will be where you want us to be," they say. "Not in Los Angeles county. That Orange county will be after a portion of us. Riverside after some more, and the process will go on until we are in the hands of Balboa—with Arada at the helm—will want the remainder."

While many people in the proposed new county claim to be ignorant of the details of the western boundary, Candidate Converse and his fellow citizens of Glendora admit that the line, as traced in the article published in The Times is correct, even to "dotted lines." What is the "pros" "drowning men grasp at straws."

They may want to segregate the business of Los Angeles county, their it to be transacted by their own people, chosen from their own midst.

The petition to the Supervisors of Los Angeles, asking that an election be called to divide the county and re-draw the boundaries of the proposed new county, has not yet been filed, although it is reported that it is ready.

RAKES IN CASH.

Lone Robber Coolly Walks into Hair-Dressing Parlor and Relieves Proprietress of Funds.

With the coolness of an expert, a lone robber walked into the Florentine Hair-dressing parlor, No. 227 Mercantile Place, yesterday morning, and after giving Mrs. Abigail Michaels, the proprietress a severe shaking, calmly took all the cash in the place and walked out.

Mrs. Michaels is suffering acutely from nervous shock, and the police are looking in vain for the robber.

The robber was a fairly well dressed young man who had been posing as a passenger, and was making his rounds around Mercantile Place for some time. Mrs. Michaels reached the hair-dressing establishment shortly after 8 o'clock, and walking up the stairs to the second floor, and began to count the proceeds of Tuesday's work. The cash amounted to some where near $20.

She was startled by feeling a touch on her shoulder, and she turned around and attempted to arise, when the robber caught her by the shoulder and threw her back into the chair. "Sit quiet," he said, "I'll take all the cash you have to give me." After warning the woman not to scream, the robber walked out of the parlor, down the stairs and disappeared.

Mrs. Michaels was frightened that she would give the alarm for some time. The negro janitor of Mercantile Place was able to give a good description of the robber.

Hundreds of Business Men to Attend Merchants' and Manufacturers' Dinner This Evening.

Several hundred of the representative members of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association will attend the "confidence dinner" to be given at Levy's tonight at 6 o'clock. It is to be an informal affair and business suits will be the correct attire, although dress suits will not be barred. The time will be set at an early hour in order that the members might go directly from their stores or offices to the banquet. Much interest has been manifested in the address of Bishop Converse, who will be the first speaker of the evening. The other speakers were chosen from among the representative business men of the city.

The banquet of the Los Angeles Merchants' Association has been postponed until next Monday night on account of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association dinner.

Reverting again to Arizona:

"The best thing that ever happened to Arizona was that long investigation before Congress at the time of the Statehood dipper."

"The people of this country began to understand then that Arizona isn't the backwoods. Undoubtedly all these magazine stories, written by ten-cent men in New York, with blood-curdling scenes laid in Arizona, have hurt the Territory. One would think that you had to go armed to the teeth to go in there."

"Arizona still wild," say young men, do you know that when Phoenix had 10,000 inhabitants, it had only one policeman to guard the public peace.

"The time is past when the time?

"It's the most peaceful city in the country. Do you know that gambling is even prohibited by the Legislature as well as by the local government of Phoenix?"

The former Consul-General and Mrs. Sampson will be visitors in Los Angeles for a week or two; then—Oh, joy—Phoenix!

HURLED THROUGH DOOR.

Cook Sustains Broken Arm and Other Injuries in Explosion of Gasoline Stove.

The entire programme will be in the hands of temperance workers who are the children of the original organization so long ago by Mrs. Blanchard. She has continued in the work, and the succeeding generation of children now composing a large part of the membership, will also have place in the organization.

No wonder they feel like celebrating, for every Sunday since the day it became an organization there has been a big party.

During all these years Mrs. Blanchard has been the inspiration and the best-beloved of children and grown-up members. She is well known for her work for the children, as well as president of the largest W.C.T.U. in the world.

The programme for Sunday evening is full of interesting features. There will be songs, pledges, games, racy stories and sketches by Rev. Robert Minter.

One of the recitations will be given by a member who joined in their first Sunday so long ago.

Mr. Robert Wankwak, who was a child soloist for the Loyal Legion at "The Holy City," and Miss Florence Lillian Hill will be a pair called "Poor Little Blossom," which are re-cited in childhood for the same good cause in the legion. Other happy features have been incorporated in the programme.

The poem adorns the back of the printed programme just issued. It was written by one of the boy members.

SAVES HER HOME.

Woman Risks Her Life to Prevent Explosion of Gasoline During a Fire in Her Kitchen.

The heroism of Mrs. Vall, early yesterday morning, saved her little home at No. 1758 East Twenty-second street, from destruction by fire.

Mrs. Vall drew a pan of gasoline and placed it on a chair in the kitchen. She wanted to use it for cleaning a floor, and, as the kitchen was unoccupied when she returned she feared that the gasoline had taken fire and was blazing to the ceiling. Pearing an explosion which would destroy her home, the woman caught up the pan and dashed it to the window. Her clothes caught fire and she sustained burns on the hands and wrists.

The injured man was sent to the Emergency Hospital.

PHOENIX AND ARIZONA THEME OF GEN. SAMPSON.

Half Way Around the World He Goes and Says He Finds No Place to Compare With the Sun-kissed Territory—Pointed Observations Abroad.

Having gone full round the world looking for some place to even dimly equal the charms of Phoenix, Ariz., former United States Consul-General A. J. Sampson (to Ecuador) in Los Angeles, headed back for the Territory.

His conclusion is that other spots on earth have their points; but they're too far from Phoenix.

The tour was undertaken as a sort of little outing after a long residence in South America, and before settling down to prosaic housekeeping in Arizona.

The former Consul-General is an interesting and able man. His observations in Europe, Asia and Africa make an important and with chapter headings, come into mind, rather than the immigration laws," he said yesterday afternoon. "We are letting in too many of those vicious low-caste from the southern part of the world.

He is honest and frank, the woman said, and when she asked him if he was the robber, he calmly raked the money into his hand and transferred it to his pocket, and then walked about the place, searching for other valuables, not to be found. After warning the woman not to scream, the robber walked out of the parlor, down the stairs and disappeared.

Mrs. Michaels was frightened that she would give the alarm for some time. The negro janitor of Mercantile Place was able to give a good description of the robber.

THIS BURGLAR USES AUTO.

Drives Machine to Place of Operations and Helps Himself to Supplies For It.

A robber entered the store of the H. H. Morris & Morris Automobile Supply Company at No. 1040 South Main street, early yesterday morning and carried away four new tires, two gas headlights and other automobile supplies valued at $200.

A considerable amount of money in the cash drawer was taken by the robber. The back yard showed where an automobile had been driven into the enclosure and left there while the robber broke in the back door and stole the supplies.

Four other robberies of minor importance were reported to the police yesterday, occurring in downtown running houses.

MUSICAL FOR SCHOLARSHIP.

The post-graduates of the Los Angeles High School gave a musical yesterday noon for the benefit of the scholarship fund. The audience was crowded, and the committee netted $20.

The proceeds go toward a scholarship for deserving girls who could not otherwise receive one.

The programme consisted of a violin solo by Lloyd Johnson; piano solo, Miss Ella Plant; cornet solo, Perry Hubert.

On "The Showers" Rev. F. G. H. Stevens will speak on, "Winning the Children," and Hugh Cork on the home department. The committee will present the money that was given.

In the afternoon the Baraca work will be presented by Byre: Hanna: Rev. E. W. Thornton will speak on the "Principles of the New Movement," and G. D. Edge on "The New Movement. What?" The convention will come to final adjournment after an address by Dr. J. W. Mahood at 8 p.m.

RAINY NOW CHASERS.

Tonight Rev. Robert J. Burdette will deliver his famous lecture on "The Rainbow Chasers," at Simpson Auditorium, on Hope street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. The price of admission is 50 cents.

It is the second annual meeting of the State Sunday-school Association during the coming year. Tickets may be had at the convention, or at Bartlett's music store.

"I honestly believe that Arizona is the most typically American place in the United States."

Sampson says that he visited the famous cities of Europe, France and even India, and didn't find one that could compare for a moment with Phoenix.

"Everywhere you go," he said, "you find Americans. There is a fine American colony in Jerusalem. I found an American school in Cairo.

"In Italy I found an American who was one of the shining lights in a Masonic lodge.

"They did things in a funny way in their Masonic lodge, by the way. With thirty other Americans, I attended a big Masonic banquet in Constantinople; England.

"Americans have so pervaded Europe that they even celebrate the Fourth of July in many of the large cities. They were preparing for a celebration in Berne, Switzerland. But when I strolled into the streets of the city, I found American flags fluttering in London and Paris. I attended a hotel reception to 2,000 invited guests. Nobody but a rich man can ever hold that job when Reid gets the confidence of the world.

He is a man of the world.

To Sell PIANOS Exclusively

Phenomenal growth of this branch of the business and lack of
room causes this decision.
The old reliable
BARTLETT MUS-IC COMPANY to close out every other department.

A. B. CHASE OUR LEADER

We have determined to be the largest retail dealers in Pianos exclusively in California.
We have long had this ambition and now that our decision has been made and the A. B. Chase Piano is to be our Leader, a vigorous campaign is to be inaugurated. In order to make room for the immense stock of Grand and Upright Pianos ordered for 1908, we will at once close out every small musical instrument, every music book and sheet of music at cost or less. When it is taken into consideration that we have a studious thousand dollars worth of miscellaneous musical merchandise on hand, the magnitude of this undertaking seems appalling. However, prices will do it.
Christmas is coming—the Holidays are approaching and nothing could be nicer for a present than a musical instrument.
You can buy a Violin, Guitar, Mandolin, Banjo, Music Box, Talking Machine, or any other musical instrument at a nominal price. Prices enough for the whole family, a whole orchestra can be had for a few dollars. Buy a concert for the boy and a guitar or mandolin for the girl, or a Talking Machine for the whole family. We want the room and the shelves must be emptied and that speedily. The whole of the ground floor has been given up to the display of these small instruments and tables are loaded with bargains. All marked in plain figures at cost prices or less. Think of it!
A Violin for $2.50; a $15 violin for $2.50; and a few rare ones worth from $75 to $200 for prices in proportion. We have over 1000 violins in stock and first come, first served. Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, Drums, Harmonicas, by the hundred at corresponding prices; $10,000 worth of Victor, Columbia and Edison Talking Machines and records, all at nominal prices for 40 months' time and less. Priced machines in same proportion. We want our
"MONEY BACK" and we want it quickly.
